ISSUE #78

MARCH 2003

VOLUME #7

The fun and excitement of March Madness is upon us. Although the Bugler can't predict the NCAA Champion, he can tell you that you will see plenty of action reported from our Winadu families.....

BRAVES, PIONEERS, HORNETS

Zachary Spal led his basketball team to the championship of his recreational league. Zachary led the team in scoring, not only for the championship game, but also for the season. Max Segal has been busy. He is playing in three basketball leagues. Max's PAL team finished in second place, his PYA team also finished in second place, playing in a nail biting overtime win to secure second, and finally his CYO team just won it's first playoff game 32 to 17. Max's gritty play and leadership at the point guard position helped the team to an 11-2 record. Max Blumenfeld just came back from New Hampshire where he had lots of fun. Besides skiing and snowboarding at Loon Mountain, his whole hockey team, the LI Gulls, were there for a Hockey Tournament. The team ended up bringing home the trophy. Lowell Hunt is heading to Montreal with his team, the Clarkstown Capitals, for a tournament St. Patrick's Day weekend.
