OCTOBER 2017

WINADU BUGLE

DIRECTORS NOTE

As Fall takes shape, we are busy gearing up for Summer 2018! Summer 2018 baseball hats, magnets and decals have been mailed and Early Enrollment slides will be sent out in November. To better communicate Winadu news and information in a timely way, the Bugle will now be a monthly newsletter. Look out for the Bugle at the end of each month in the mail and via email. We are always looking for camper & staff news and photos, as well as 'on the street' reporters so let us know any ideas you have or if you want to contribute. We hope to see everyone at the Fall Reunion (Sun, November 19th). Enjoy your Halloween!

Join us for some fun at the CAMP WINADU FALL NY REUNION

GUESS THE COUNSELOR

This counselor is returning in 2018 for his 3rd summer at Winadu. He is a staple as a Lifeguard on Onota Lake and has been with the same campers 2 years in a row. He spends his Winter studying at Cardiff Met University, loves snowboarding and traveling through Europe.

Answer: in November Bugle

WHAT'S UP WINADU?

The maintenance team is busy at camp working on new projects. We have already finished a new Lakeside Firepit and the Olympian bunks all have new awesome decks and are have been painted a cool blue! More updates in November.

W HAPPENINGS

Thanks to all who joined Team Winadu at the Sunrise Walk in Pearl River, NY to raise money for kids with cancer and their siblings to attend Day Camp at no cost.

W INTERVIEW

Reporter: AJ Sonnenberg, UH '18
Interview with Jared

Aj: What camp meal do you miss the most?

Jared: I miss Taco Tuesday (my favorite meal). And, of course I can't wait until Ice Cream on Wednesday is back to being a regular part of my week.

Aj: What Athlete has impressed you the most this Fall?

Jared: You know I have to say a Wisconsin Badger so I am going to say Freshmen RB Jonathan Taylor who is having an amazing start to his college career in a difficult conference. He is going to have rushed for over 1000 yards in just 7 games and one of them he didn't even start.

Aj: Have you seen any camp friends lately?

Jared: Yes, I recently had the opportunity to have dinner with bunkmates and Lobos in my bunk from my days as a Winadu camper; I also spent time with a couple of campers who were Braves when I was their counselor in the TeePee House. It was really nice catching up with everyone and talking about many of the same traditions we still do today.

Aj: What was your favorite year as a camper?

Jared: I liked every year because each one was different. But, Senior year was very special — especially playing in the Senior basketball game at the end of Color War.

Aj: What will be new at Winadu for 2018?

Jared: We are planning a lot of new things at camp this year, from all camp events, divisional activities, trips, as well as new facilities. We already built a new circular campfire site near the lake and currently planning a second overnight trip for the Olympians.

Aj: Do you have a Color War clue?

Jared: Look at the Lake, the glowbots are near, Defending the title is up for consideration this year. The teams will definitely be white and blue, At the 1st Campership of 2018, you will hear the next color war clue.
